ABOUT THE MERMAID THEATRE

In 1972, Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia was founded by Evelyn Garbary, Sara Lee Lewis, and Tom Miller. The company received a grant from Canada’s Local Initiatives Program and support from Acadia University. Mermaid Theatre is committed to introducing the performing arts and literature to rural children. Performing an adaptation of Gogol’s The Nose on May 3, 1972, this dynamic team first “featured the innovative blend of puppets, movement, music, and storytelling that was to become Mermaid’s trademark.”

It’s Okay to Be Different – Stories by Todd Parr will feature an innovative approach to puppetry manipulation and construction, combined with playful original music for which the company has earned worldwide praise.

Love the World

Love the grin. Love your skin.
Love the bees. Love the trees.
Love giving a hand. Love taking a stand.
LOVE YOURSELF. LOVE THE WORLD!

What the world needs now is love—and who better than Todd Parr to share a message of kindness, charity, and acceptance. Touching upon themes including self-esteem, environmentalism, and respect for others, Todd uses his signature silly and accessible style to encourage readers to show love for themselves and all the people, places, and things they encounter. 6

Be Who You Are!

Be who you are!
Be proud of where you’re from.
Be a different color. Speak your language.
Wear everything you need to be you.

Who better than Todd Parr to remind kids that their unique traits are what make them so special? With his signature silly and accessible style, Parr encourages readers to embrace all their unique qualities. 7

The Goodbye Book

Through the lens of a pet fish who has lost his companion, Todd Parr tells a moving and wholly accessible story about saying goodbye. Touching upon the host of emotions children experience, Todd reminds readers that it's okay not to know all the answers, and that someone will always be there to support them. An invaluable resource for life's toughest moments. 8
